

Llanelli Rugby Club

WHEN THE SCARLETS FIRST PLAYED.

Llanelli is one of the most famous rugby towns in the world. It is the focal point for one of the most passionately supported rugby clubs in the world, the Scarlets – with a rich and unrivalled rugby heritage.

Llanelli's first recorded game occurred in 1876 at Peoples Park. The home side played in blue. However, it is thought that the club had been formed a few years earlier. As a result members, players and

Scarlets

Parc y Scarlets is the new home for Llanelli Rugby Club. The region's new ground replaced Stradey Park the home of Llanelli rugby for almost 130 years. The name, Parc y Scarlets, will take the history of Stradey Park and Llanelli rugby into a new era.
