Llanelli Riots

What started out as a peaceful strike by railway workers in Llanelli turned within two days into violence, Llanelli riots started in 1911, due to miners not being paid enough money in their railway jobs.

The war starting

- This abominable riots got out of hand. Everyone was going round with signs, Stones, And even their own bodies !. In the afternoon of this strike a train was passing by (People say the driver was drunken !) The rioters went crazy everything was being thrown at this train. Troops Eventually had to be called in !.

The troops In Llanelli

- Once the troops were called in the rioters became solidarity. Not long after Bullets were aimed by the rioters at complete innocent people !. The air was filled with sorrow !. A man called Leonard Warsell was shaving in his kitchen. When tragically he went out to look and a firing bullet was aimed at him. He was wounded and therefore

Another Death strikes !

- The troops were now frustrated and people were still rebelling. Everything was turning out disastrously and to prove this. Another complete innocent man by the name of John Jack John. He was shot due to him walking at the wrong place at the wrong time !. This definitely ment war. He died too !

The aftermath

- Everything eventually calmed down and people was now cool. Just shortly after the rioters went back to work in the same place ! Everything was now fine !
